Identify personal biases

• What assumptions do I make based only on weight regarding a person’s character, intelligence, professional success, health status, or lifestyle behaviors?

• How do I feel working with people of different body sizes?

• What types of feedback do I give to obese patients? Does this feedback encourage healthful behavior change?

• How do I address the needs of obese individuals? Am I sensitive to their concerns?

• Do I treat the individual or only the condition?